

BEAUTIFUL MEXICO

06NIGHTS/07DAYS

Day 1: Mexico City – Arrival transfer

Day 2.- City tour & Anthropology museum

Impressive megapolis with its anthological symbiosis: Indians, Mestizos, Creoles and Europeans. Cultural and archeological center of the most interesting country of the American continent. The city of mixed emotions, splendid colors and of spicy tastes. You will see: “Zocalo”, the main square of the country, the ruins of the ancient Aztec city of Tenochtitlan, the National Palace. See the murals of Mexico’s greatest artist, Diego Rivera. These colorful murals cover Mexico’s pre-Columbian Indian history, the colonial period and the Revolution. Then proceed to visit the Anthropological Museum, which is the finest archaeological museum in the world. It is located on more than 10,000 square meters; it has 26 exhibitive halls where you can see thousands of artifacts, including burial tombs, giant Olmec stone heads, the famous Aztec Calendar Stone and the reconstructed Mayan temple.

Day 3.- Basilica de Guadalupe & Teotihuacan Pyramids

Visit to Basilica de Guadalupe, one of the main churches in Mexico city. Then we will proceed to Mexico’s grandest archaeological site, ancient Teotihuacán (80km away from the Mexico City), built by the Nahuatl. The sixth largest city in the world in 400 A.D., Teotihuacán was mysteriously abandoned 300 years later, centuries before the Aztec occupation. Visit the Jaguar Palace and the Temple of the Plumed Conch Shells. See the Pyramids of the Sun and Moon. Walk the Avenue of the Dead, flanked by temples and palaces. Lunch in Teotihuacan with cultural show. Return to hotel

Day 4.- Mexico City – Cancun

Day 5.- Chichen Itza

Departure from Cancun. Chichen Itza.

Magicians, scientists, and the ball players – only the selected ones were able to access to this special landscape of the white stone and of the “eyes” of the earth – the underground lakes. Temples, which are considered as belonging to the classical and post-classical periods did not arrive to see Spanish as were abounded by its population because of unknown reasons. Arch-astronomy was born in one of such cities. Philosophy and history as one. View the Pyramid of Kukulcan, “the feathered serpent”, of the ball games field, of the observatory etc.

Day 6: Xcaret

Xcaret, meaning "Little Inlet" in Maya, for more than for 1000 years had been one of the most important Mayan ceremonial sites and seaports. Mayans used to come here to purify themselves in "Cenote" (natural water well). Today this nature's sacred paradise is an Eco-Archaeological Park with a plethora of attractions such as underground river swim, dolphin show, horses, a farm with tropical birds, beach and its famous crystal water caves. Xcaret is eco-archeological theme park which aims to package the Yucatan's Mayan history and its tropical lagoon ecology into one day-long fun experience. The result is well-executed; Xcaret is a terrific place for a family to spend a day. In the evening enjoy the beautiful folkloric show in an amazing setting.
